

Item 5.C: Replica of a robe worn by Hong Xiuquan, Nanjing, 2006

---

The Taiping Rebellion Museum at Zhanyuan in Nanjing first opened in 1956. In 2000 it underwent significant renovation and expansion. Exhibits show documents and official seals, and chronicle the spread of the rebellion on maps and charts of major events.

Photograph by Liz Nelson